Remember the raffle for the fine breach-loading gun at Bashford & Harrison's to-morrow night.

Admission to Col. Waddell's lecture to night only twenty-five cents.
Tickets can be had at the book-stores and at the door of the Hall.

We are informed that the ginner at the gin of Dr. W. J. Hawkins, at Ridgeway, had his hand badly lacemented yesterday by a part of the machinery.

We learn that the cotton gin of Peterson Dunn, Esq., near Forest-ville, in this county, caught on fire yesterday. The names were extinguished before much damage was done.

The facetious local Editor of the Wilmington Journal reproduces the following—against which we beg leave to protest:

"The famous wit and beauty, Lady Wortley Montague, made the most sarcastic (and unjust) observation ever published about her own sex.
"It goes far," she said, "to reconcile me to being a woman when I reflect that I am in no danger of ever marrying one."

THANKSGIVING.—His Excellency
Gov. Caldwell, has issued his proclamation setting apart Thursday, November 27th, 1873, as a day of Thanksgiving throughout the State.
Attention is invited to the proclamation which will be found in another column.

THE EASTERN MEDICAL CONVEN-TION.—This body will assemble at Goldsboro on the 4th of November.
This Convention will be an auxiliary to the State Medical Society, and not in any way conflict with that body. We shall endeavor to have a reporter on hand.

TEMPERANCE IN VIRGINIA.—The State Council of the Friends of Temperance, now in session in Manchester, Va., has elected for the ensuing year the following officers: Mr. J.
W. Newton, of Staunton, President;
Mr. J. L. Lettich, of Colleton, Secyetary. The meeting is said to be large and enthusiastic, and the officials elected Virginia's most prominent sons.

TO START FROM HENDERSON
AND KITTRELLS.—We inadvertently stated that the special trains to the Weldon Fair next week would start from Warrenton Tuesday and Friday mornings. We should have said from Henderson—leaving there at 6:30 a. m. It will start from Kittrells Wednesday and Thursday mornings, arriving in Weldon at 9:40 a. m.

Our mistake led the Henderson
Tribune into a similar error.

A letter from Weldon yesterday evening says that a large number of entries are already being made.

COL. WADDELL'S LECTURE TO-NIGHT.—Our citizens will remember that Col. A. M. Waddell will deliver his lecture in Metropolitan Hall this evening upon the subject of Hygiene and his sufferings, the price of admission to be only 25 cents. Those who have heard Col. Waddell upon this subject speak of the lectures being extremely interesting, and we trust to see a good audience to hear him here.

The Charlotte Observer thus speaks of his lecture in that place on Tuesday night:

"In accordance with notice previously given, Hon. Alfred M. Waddell, of Washington, delivered at the Chancery Institute for Young Ladies, a lecture on the early history of our State and country. The lecture was attended by an appreciative audience who listened carefully to the address as it came from the lips of the speaker.
Mr. Waddell was introduced by Gov.
Vance. He cited various historical facts, going to show that a body of white men had visited this country at least five hundred years before it was discovered by Columbus. Each of his assertions was backed up by facts as given by history, thus showing that his arguments were based upon substantial grounds. Mr. Waddell elucidated to his audience last night many facts of which they had had previously but vague ideas, and many of which they were before entirely ignorant. We would take pleasure now in stating some of the leading points made by him, but cannot find the lecture here a synopsis of the lecture."

"We are glad to say, that although our people had raised their expectations high, they were in no wise disappointed in the effort of the distinguished gentleman last night."

THE DAILY NEWS.

JORDAN STONE, Managing Editor.
SAM'L T. WILLIAMS, Political Editor.

FRIDAY..... OCTOBER 24, 1873.

The bare announcement that a distinguished son of the State, Hon. A. M. WADDELL, will lecture to-night at Metropolitan Hall, for the benefit of Memphis, should be sufficient to secure a crowded house.

Let all who can not go to hear Col. WADDELL's lecture to-night, send the price of admission, twenty-five cents, to A. P. BRYAN, Southern Express Agent, of this city, who forwards, free of charge, all contributions for the relief of the sufferers, to the Memphis authorities.

The Baltimore Gazette says, "The Business College Lecture Course will include one popular speaker not heretofore noticed—Hon. Z. B. VANCE, of North Carolina." The Gazette adds that Gov. VANCE has been heard and enjoyed in Baltimore frequently in off-hand speeches, and that "he will doubtless be a great attraction in a well-prepared lecture."

We hope Gov. VANCE will tell the Baltimoreans "All About It," meaning North Carolina.

The result of the recent elections in Ohio and Oregon will give fresh courage to our Conservative friends in Virginia, who have been pressing the canvass with so much activity, vigor and ability. There is no abatement of zeal among our friends in the Old Dominion—but everywhere the Conservative fires are blazing, and Conservative orators are arousing the enthusiasm of the masses to the highest pitch. God send that grand old Virginia will achieve such a triumph in the cause of right and honesty and good government as will drive Radicalism forever from her borders.

We notice in a New York paper that THOMAS DENNY, Jr., Chairman, 39 Wall street, calls upon all the holders of North Carolina Special Tax Bonds, who intend to join in the suit under charge of Mr. CHARLES McDONALD, to hand in the number of their bonds and the assessment of half of one per cent, on or before November the 10th.

This is the suit in which Hon. REVERDY JOHNSON and Hon. CALEB CUSHING have been employed. These gentlemen will have a lively time in forcing North Carolina to pay a fraudulent and unconstitutional obligation. It will be resisted to the last resort.

One of the best accounts of the State Fair we have seen appeared in the editorial columns of the Hillsboro Recorder—extracts from which we gave yesterday. The following compliment to Senator Ransom's speech on the occasion we take from the editorial columns of the same paper:

"North Carolinians had no cause to regret that a native orator was called upon to instruct and delight them, and though we do not mean to disparage the ability of Mr. Voorhees, we are glad they had the opportunity of knowing how great a man they had set apart.

We hope hereafter we will not go abroad for our speakers, but display our own jewels which we have in plenty, and not send out of the State to borrow them.

The speech was pronounced magnificent.

Memphis.

On Friday evening, at 8 o'clock, Hon. A. M. WADDELL will deliver his popular lecture at Metropolitan Hall, in this city, in aid of the Memphis sufferers. Price of Admission twenty-five cents.

Col. WADDELL is a pleasant and eloquent speaker, and his lecture is highly spoken of by those who have heard it.

Although the scourge is somewhat abating in Memphis, there is urgent need for more money to relieve the sufferers. Great destitution still prevails. Thousands of helpless children who have been orphaned by the plague are crying for bread.

There has been no public meeting of our citizens to help Memphis, but many have given through the Churches and benevolent orders. But the cry comes for more contributions still.

Metropolitan Hall should be filled to overflowing on Friday evening. Come out, people of Raleigh, and give your mite to help your unfortunate fellow-creatures, as well as to listen to an instructive and interesting lecture.

The Weldon Fair.

The Roanoke News speaks very encouragingly of the prospects of the Fair of the Roanoke and Tar River Agricultural Society, which begins on Tuesday next, and continues four days.

The Fairs of this Society have heretofore been well conducted and have attracted a large number of visitors. We have no reason to believe that the ensuing one will prove an exception. On the contrary, extensive preparations have been made in anticipation of an immense attendance, and we doubt not that the efforts of the officers and friends of the Society will be crowned with gratifying success.

Not only Eastern Carolina, but the cities of Norfolk and Petersburg always send large contributions to the Weldon Fair, and we learn that these two sister cities will be more largely represented next week than ever. Raleigh should not be behind them. Our merchants and business men should endeavor to compete with Norfolk and Petersburg for the trade of the counties tributary to Weldon—a matter which has been too much neglected heretofore.

The Roanoke and Tar River Agricultural Society is under the management of reliable, energetic and public spirited gentlemen, who should be encouraged in their efforts to advance the agricultural interests of their section.

(For the Daily News.

To the Public.

Some weeks ago there came to this from the South, a white married woman, in a most delicate situation, without friends or money. She endeavored to obtain employment, but failed to do so, and was thrown upon the streets, although it was plain to all that she was soon to become a mother. Her story was told to many, it being one of rare incident and much cruelty, and she produced letters to verify the truthfulness of her statements. Still no one in this country gave a helping hand to her for a living, and she became a destitute beggar, without clothing save what was on her person, sleeping in the field, weather like a dumb animal, an outcast without a home or friends. The knowledge of her condition was forced on me by my official duties, and I gave her at first, such shelter as the station house afforded, and her meals from my own table, and then took her home, pitying her helpless condition with the hope that something might be done for her in the course of time. I am a poor man, but I have patiently waited and entreated in her behalf privately for assistance to one, who is without a friend and is so soon destined to become the mother of a child. Will not some kind-hearted person heed me now. I blame no one. I only believe that I have not met the right one. That is all. And my friend, when you see this, do not cast it aside, but set what you can do. So why never fail to reward you are paid, but there is a reward for such in good deed-doing that will be remembered.

Hoping that the necessity of the case will explain this card by one who has already a growing family on his hands to care for,

I remain, sincerely,

PAUL LINCKE,
Captain of Night Police,
Raleigh, Oct. 21, 1873.

Caroline Hugel, aged 22, was stabbed to death by her father at New Orleans, on Sunday last. They were engaged from Alton, and had just landed from the steamship. The father says she dishonored her family by intimacy with a young Frenchman on board the steamer. He promised the captain not to molest her while on board the vessel.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.
By His Excellency, the Governor of North Carolina.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Raleigh, October 22nd, 1873.

WHEREAS, The people of North Carolina have been abundantly blessed during the past year with health and happiness, and especially of all the products of its soil so that the garners of the husbandman are filled to overflowing; and the industries of the people have produced a rich reward for his labor, and every class of our population prospered in all laudable enterprises; and WHEREAS, and it is meet and proper that we give in a great measure an account of our midst, and no plague, pestilence or famine has visited our State; Now, therefore, I do hereby issue the following proclamation, which I desire to invoke for the benefit of the people, to render thanks to Almighty God for these and numberless other blessings showered upon us by His grace; I, R. E. C. L. VANCE, Governor of North Carolina, do, in accordance with the laws of the State, in conformity with an honored precedent, do appoint Thursday, November 27th, 1873, as a day of public Thanksgiving throughout the State; and I do earnestly invite the clergy of every denomination to open their respective houses of worship on said day, and to call their flocks to the temple to thank the Lord, let us all give a joyful noise to the Rock of our salvation.

Let us come before His presence with that虔诚 and make a joyful noise unto him with psalms.

In the city of Raleigh, on this the 22nd day of October, A. D. 1873, seven thousand eight hundred and seven thousand and in the ninety-eighth year of American Independence.

Secretary Richardson decides that under the provisions of the act of June 28, 1864, officers of the United States must in all cases be citizens of the United States, and, as pilots by section 14 of the steamboat act of February 28, 1871, are regarded as officers of the steamers, only American citizens are entitled to the license issued to pilots under that act.

Can this be true?—A HORRIBLE DEATH IN A PRISON-CELL.—[Special Correspondence of the Baltimore American.]—Warsaw, Va., October 15, 1873.—Benjamin Jenkins, an inmate white man, who had been committed to the jail of Richmond county, Virginia, to be tried for killing a servant woman at the poorhouse, on the 13th of August last, died October 12, from exposure and under circumstances of wretchedness seldom compared in a civilized country— even during the prison-life of an Englishman. Jenkins was placed in jail about the middle of August, and soon after his incarceration he broke out the two windows at the sides of his cell, and tore up his clothing, and from that time till his death he had been entirely nude, and without any clothing, bedding, shavings, straw, or furniture in his room. The winds and rains drove through his cell at will, excepting the slight break made by the prison-bars. He seemed to enjoy his naked condition during the warm weather, and spent his time by singing, shouting, and otherwise, as the spirit moved him, but lately the cold, and sometimes rainy, nights proved that darkness for covering, and a hard floor for bed and pillow, are impotent for support of human life, without medicine or nursing, and consequently Jenkins was found on Sunday morning dead, in a corner of his cell. The exhibition of his naked corpse was horrible.

The London Lancet says: "We hear that a club has been formed at Hamburg for promoting the heathen practice of incineration in place of Christian orthodox baptism. The club, it is said, already numbers upwards of eighty members, each of whom, on entering, had made a will, according to which his remains are to be burnt. The only difficulty about this proceeding is the cost of the fuel. The wood and coal required for the satisfactory destruction of a human body would certainly be considerable, and the present scarcely seems a favorable time for reviving this ancient and, in a sanitary point of view, commendable practice."

The St. Louis Mutual Life Insurance Company.

The St. Louis Mutual Life Insurance Company have filed an answer to the petition of the State Superintendent of Insurance, asking for an injunction restraining that company from further prosecution of business, in which they deny all the allegations set forth, and assert that the company is not, and able to meet all liabilities. The following is the text of the resolution adopted by the meeting of directors held in St. Louis, denouncing the course of Superintendent Selby in applying for an injunction which, it is alleged, "was based upon a hasty and incomplete examination."

Resolved, That in the opinion of this Board the action of Superintendent Selby is an unjust, unwarranted and reckless abuse of the power conferred on him by the law under which he pretends to be acting and plainly indicates his utter incapacity to properly exercise the responsible duties of such an office; and Resolved, That an institution such as this, possessing, as it does, not less than $6,000,000 of good assets, and abundantly able to meet all its liabilities, cannot be made the toy or plaything of a thoughtless and reckless public officer, (and that the shield of the State will not protect him from the scorn and contempt of all prudent and right minded men.)

Resolved, That this Board would regard the appointment of a receiver for the company as equal to the interest of the policy holders, and will endeavor to prevent such a disaster by all the means in its power:

Sup. Selby has been removed by the Governor of Missouri, and Ex-Senator F. P. Blair appointed in his stead.

IMPORTANT INSURANCE DECISIONS.—Opinions given by the State Courts of Indiana and Kentucky and by Judge Davis of the Supreme Court of the United States Circuit Court of Indiana, declare that insurance placed in companies that have not complied with the laws of the State, where the property insured is situated, cannot, in case of loss, be sued for and recovered in any of the United States or State courts, and that the assured is left without legal remedy if the companies should refuse payment. These decisions are subject to review by the Supreme Court of the United States.

THIRTEEN BULLETS IN HIS BODY AND HE STILL LIVES!—Among recent arrivals at Fulton, Arkansas, was M. W. Dickson, a ranchman, of Brown county, Texas, where he has five thousand head of cattle. A few weeks ago he was attacked by Comanches and Indians, who shot at him. Thirteen bullets took effect in his body—one in his right shoulder, six in the breast and abdomen, four in the left arm, and one in the right side of the neck, and one in the back of the head. He was rescued before the Indians had time to scalp him, and had to stay at home two weeks on account of his wounds.

LOCAL MATTERS.

A DESERVED COMPLIMENT.—Our State exchanges in their comments on our recent Fair remark generally on the decorum and universal good order that were maintained during the whole week on the grounds. Notwithstanding the immense crowds—no scenes of disorder, drunkenness or rowdyism occurred, and everything moved on with the precision and quietude of a military camp. The Chief Marshal and his Aids are entitled to the credit for the esteem and admirable good order that prevailed during the week. Capt. W. K. Davis, the popular Senator from Franklin, Wilson and Nash, has made friends of friends throughout the State by the tact good judgment and gentlemanly courtesy which marked his course in the performance of his arduous and responsible duties. Capt. Davis has shown himself a high-toned gentleman and a most efficient officer, and we congratulate the Executive Committee on their capital selection for Chief Marshal.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

NOON DISPATCHES.

New York News—The President's Letter—Stokes Trial.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—A reporter last evening ascertained from Mr. Williams, President of the Metropolitan National Bank, that the President in his letter to Williams, merely acknowledges the receipt of one from that gentleman, and expressed his anxious desire to do all he could to relieve the monetary panic. He then asks the question why cannot the banks come together and make some arrangement for the relief of merchants and the public, adding that he will do all in his power to assist them. This is said to be the whole substance of the letter.

In the resumption of Stokes trial to-day, Rufus Andrews deposed that Stokes came to consult him before the shooting, and gave him a retainer. He was then nervous and excited, and witness thought he was not insane. The District Attorney asked the witness if he had any other reason for thinking the prisoner insane beyond the fact that he gave him (witness) a retainer and made him counsel. (Laughter.) Shanks, the city editor of the  Tribune was brought from Brooklyn Court on account of habeas corpus to testify that Stokes had expressed to him, life, other witnesses testified to hearing Stokes express fears that Fisk or his emissaries would kill him.

The President's Letter to Mr. Williams.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—The President having nearly recovered from his sickness, which kept him from his office yesterday, received to-day a large number of visitors. On being asked by a friend as to the contents of his recent letter to Mr. Williams, he said "the therein repeated a former remark," namely: that in addition to what had already been done by the Government, the only way of relief was for the Government to buy exchange, but exchange could not now be bought, as the Government has no use for it, having already purchased enough on London for the Navy and State Departments to answer present purposes.

It would seem from further conversation with the President, that the letter in question was merely suggestive, without asserting any intention of the positive official action.

FOREIGN NEWS.

"The King Shall Enjoy His Own Again!"—The Restoration of the French Monarchy Certain.

PARIS, Oct. 22.—A meeting of the delegates of the Right Centre of the Assembly was held to-day. A resolution recalling Count de Chamberlain to France was unanimously adopted. The meeting also adopted a resolution formally coalescing with members of the Right. A communication was addressed to the party of this Right Centre with a view to an understanding upon questions of moment.

MADRID, Oct. 23.—The insurgent fleet has returned to Cartagena.

LONDON, Oct. 23.—A special from Paris to the Daily Telegraph, states it is practically settled that the Assembly will meet October 29th, and a motion for the restoration of the monarchy will be made on November 5th.

Miscellaneous Items.

YANKTON, DALCOTIA, Oct. 23.—P.H. Wintermute who killed Gen. McCook, is indicted for manslaughter. The friends of McCook are indignant at the failure of an indictment for murder.

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—Goldsmith made the best trot against time at 2:17.

MARSHAL, TEXAS, Oct. 23.—The yellow fever is an epidemic here. Money and supplies are wanted.

HALIFAX, Oct. 23.—Several vessels put back on account of boisterous weather. Three lives were lost.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 23.—The Locomotive Engineers' Convention elected T. S. Engrave, of Lafayette, Indiana, First Grand Engineer. The next annual meeting will be held in Atlanta, Ga. The sessions were secret.

SHREVEPORT, Oct. 23.—The disease is unchanged. The interments on Wednesday were 3 white and 1 black.

The President of the Howard Association has returned from Marshal, Texas, and reports the disease very bad. Five per cent. of those attacked die.

The Tribune on Mr. Shanks's Commitment.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—The Tribune in an article on the imprisonment of Mr. Shanks, one of its attaches, for contempt of Court in Brooklyn says:

"For all it says the Tribune holds itself responsible. We believe in libel suits. We are quite ready to meet them when they come in our own way; to make reparation when we are wrong; and to fight it out to the bitter end when we are right. But we give fair notice to the beaten, disgraced and angered ring of Brooklyn, that it can never restore their damaged characters and ruined prospects by a malicious prosecution of newspaper employees, and that in an assault upon the independence of the press, it can only cover itself with new disaster."

A WAIL FROM MEMPHIS.

The Fever Not Abating—Deaths by the Score—Money and Supplies Wanted.

MEMPHIS, Oct. 23.—The Howard Association publishes a circular that the fever is not abating. Scores of men are sick on the grounds. Notwithstanding the immense crowds—no scenes of disorder, drunkenness or rowdyism occurred, and everything moved on with the precision and quietude of a military camp. The Chief Marshal and his Aids are entitled to the credit for the esteem and admirable good order that prevailed during the week. Capt. W. K. ### MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

Meeting of the Bank Presidents—Sanitary Corps Hard at Work, etc.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—At a meeting of the bank presidents to-day Mr. Williams, President of the Metropolitan National Bank, submitted the letter he had received from the President in reply to one which he (Williams), at the request of a friend, had written to President Grant. The reply to this letter was very brief, and simply stated that for three or four weeks the President would feel disposed, in a case of urgent need, to issue weekly three or four million out of the legal reserve.

The following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That the message of the President of the United States to the banks of New York be respectfully and gratefully acknowledged, and we cordially reciprocate his kind wishes, and will act in the spirit which he recommends.

Resolved, That the message of the President of the United States to the banks of New York be respectfully and gratefully acknowledged, and we cordially reciprocate his kind wishes, and will act in the spirit which he recommends.
